The Eighth Volume of the Era will commence on the first of January ensuing, and be enlarged by the addition of four columns. We have neglected no means that could promise to make it an agreeable companion for the Household, and an efficient co-adjutor to the enlighted Politician. It has secured able correspondents at home and abroad, and no journal in the country can surpass the Era as it respects contributors to its Literary Department.

The Era publishes condensed reports of the proceedings of Congress, explains movements in that body, the causes of which do not always lie upon the surface, and from its position is enabled to keep a constant watch upon the sotion of the Federal Government in relation to all questions at issue between Liberty and Slavery.

The only journal at the seat of the Federal Government, representing the Anti-Slavery Sentiment of the Republic, while the Pro-Slavery Sentiment is represented here by four daily papers, nearly all of them being liberally sustained by Governmental patronage, it asks the support of all who believe, in sincerity, that the Union was formed to recent the blaten. port of all who believe, in sincerity, that

INDEPENDENT DEMOCRATIC-PLATFORM. ADOPTED AT PITTSBURGH, AUGUST 12, 1852

Having assembled in National Convenion as the delegates of the Free Democracy of the United States, united by a comon resolve to maintain right against wrongs, and freedom against slavery; confiding in the intelligence, patriotism, and the discriminating justice of the American people; putting our trust in God for the riumph of our cause, and invoking his guidance in our endeavors to advance it we now submit to the candid judgment of all men the following declaration of principles and measures:

I. That Governments, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, re instituted among men to secure to all, those inalienable rights of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, with which they vere endowed by their Creator, and of which none can be deprived by valid legislation, except for crime.

II. That the true mission of American Democracy is to maintain the liberties of the people, the sovereignty of the Union, by-the impartial application to public affairs, without sectional discriminations, of the fundamental principles of equal rights, strict justice, and economical administration. Republic of the world, to protest against one of limited powers, derived solely from the intervention of Kings and Emperors the Constitution; and the grants of power against nations seeking to establish for therein ought to be strictly construed by all the departments and agents of the Gov- Governments. ernment, and it is inexpedient and danrerous to exercise doubtful constitutional

IV. That the Constitution of the United States, ordained to form a more perfect ed nations. union, to establish justice, and secure the blessings of liberty, expressly denies to the General Government all power to deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; and, therefore, the Government, having no more power to make a slave than to make a king, and no more power to establish slavery than to establish monarchy, should at once proceed to relieve itself from all responsibility for the existence of slavery wherever it possesses constitutional power to legislate for its extinction.

V. That, to the persevering and importunate demands of the Slave Power for more slave States, new slave Territories, and the nationalization of Slavery, our distinct and final answer is-no more slave States, no slave Territory, no nationalized Slavery, and no national legislation for the extradition of slaves.

VI. That Slavery is a sin against God and a crime against man, which no human enactment nor usage can make right; and that Christianity, humanity, and patriotism, alike demand its abolition.

VII. That the fugitive Slave Act of 1850 is repugnant to the Constitution, to the principles of the common law, to the spirit of Christianity, and to the sentiments of the civilized world. We therefore deny its binding force upon the American People, and demand its immediate and total repeal. VIII. That the doctrine that any human aw is a finality, and not subject to modification or repeal, is not in accordance with the creed of the founders of our Government, and is dangerous to the liberties of the people. IX. That the acts of Congress known as the Compromise Measures of 1850, by making the admission of a sovereign State contingent upon the adoption of other measures demanded by the special interest of Slavery; by their omission to guaranty freedom in free Territories; by their attempt to impose unconstitutional limittions on the power of Congress and the people to admit new States; by their proisions for the assumption of five millions of the State debt of Texas, and for the payment of five millions more, and the sion of a large territory to the same State under menace, as an inducement to the relinquishment of a groundless claim, and by their invasion of the sovereignty of the States and the liberties of the people, through the enactment of an unjust, oppressive, and unconstitutional Fugitive Slave Law, are proved to be inconsistent with all the principles and maxims of De-mocracy, and wholly inadequate to the settlement of the questions of which they are claimed to be an adjustment.

the Slavery question can be looked for, except in the practical recognition of the truth that Slavery is sectional, and Freedom national; by the total separation of the General Government from Slavery, and the exercise of its legitimate and constitutional influence on the side of Freedom;

subject of Slavery and the extradition of fugitives from service. XI. That all men have a natural right to portion of the soil; and that, as the use the soil is indispensable to life, the right of all men to the soil is as sacred as heir right to life itself. XII. That the public lands of the Unied States belong to the people, and should not be sold to individuals nor granted to corporations, but should be held as a sared trust for the benefit of the people and should be granted in limited quantiies, free of cost, to landless settlers.

XIII. That a due regard for the Federal Constitution, and sound administrative policy, demand that the funds of the General Government be kept separate from banking institutions; that inland and ocean postage should be reduced to the owest possible point; that no more revenue should be raised than is required to defray the strictly necessary expenses of the public service, and to pay off the public debt; and that the power and patron-age of the Government should be dimin-ished by the abolition of all unnecessary offices, salaries, and privileges, and by the election by the people of all civil officers n the service of the United States, so far as may be consistent with the prompt and efficient transaction of the public business.

XIV. That river and harbor improvenents, when necessary to the safety and convenience of commerce with foreign nations or among the several States, are bjects of national concern, and it is the duty of Congress, in the exercise of its constitutional powers, to provide for the

XV. That emigrants and exiles from he Old World should find a cordial welcome to homes of comfort and fields of enterprise in the New; and every attempt to abridge their privilege of becoming citizens and owners of the soil among us ought to be resisted with inflexible deter-

XVI. That every nation has a clear right to alter or change its own Government, and to administer its own concerns in such manner as may best secure the rights and promote the happiness of the people, and foreign interference with that right is a dangerous violation of the III. That the Federal Government is and by all proper means to prevent, themselves republican or constitutional

XVII. That the independence of Hayti ought to be recognised by our Government, and our commercial relations with it placed on the footing of the most favor-

XVIII. That as, by the Constitution, the citizens of each State shall be entitled to all privileges and immunities of citizens of the several States," the practice of imprisoning colored seamen of other States, while the vessels to which they belong fie in port, and refusing to exercise the right to bring such cases before the Supreme Court of the United States, to test the legality of such proceedings, is a flagrant violation of the Constitution, and an invasion of the rights of the citizens of otther States, utterly inconsistent with the professions made by the slaveholders, that they wish the provisions of the Constitution faithfully oberved by every State in the Union.

XIX. That we recommend the introduction into all treaties, hereafter to be negotiated between the United States and foreign nations, of some provision for the amicable settlement of difficulties by a resort to decisive arbitration.

XX. That the Free Democratic party is not organized to aid either the Whig or Democratic wing of the great Slave Compromise party of the nation, but to defeat them both; and that repudiating and renonucing both, as hopelessly corrupt, and utterly unworthy of confidence, the purpose of the Free Democracy is to take possession of the Federal Government, and administer it for the better protection of the rights and interests of the whole

XXI. That we inscribe on our banner, FREE SOIL, FREE SPEECH, FREE LABOR, and FREE MEN, and under it will fight on and fight ever, until a triumphant victory shall reward our exertions.

XXII. That upon this Platform the Convention presents to the American People as a candidate for the office of President of the United States, JOHN P. HALE, of New Hampshire, and as a candidate for the office of Vice President of the United States, GEORGE W. JULIAN, of Indiana. and earnestly commends them to the support of all freemen and parties.

A New and Improved Volume. WOODWORTH'S YOUTH'S CABINET enter VV upon the Ninth Year of its publication, with the January Number. This Magazine has acquired the uame of the "Young People's Favorito." It has January Number. This Magazine has acquired the name of the "Young People's Favorite." It has become a household word. Its articles comprise an almost endless variety; all, whether grave or hunorous, adapted to instruct as well as entertain, and the whole pervaded by an air of pure and healthful mo-

Author of "Uncle Frank's Home Stories," "Theodore Thinker's Tales," "Stories about Animals," &c. is still the Editor. The January number contains a choice variety of articles, including some of the best Puzzles over published. For engravings, we have Portraits of Washington Irving, Daniel Webster on his Farm, and a host of others, among which is our Frontispiece, executed at great expense, in the high-est style of the art. The picture is a perfect gene, itself worth the prices of the entire volume.

THE RAMBLES IN THE OLD WORLD, which have sided materially in swelling our subscription list since the Editor's return from abroad, will be continued through the year 1894. Woodworth's Youth's Cariner will be found to be (as t has been called by a London publisher) decided!

Richest Dollar Magazine in the World! It embraces nearly 600 pages, forming two boautiful volumes, illustrated with upwards of 75 fine engravings. Now is the time to subscribe. Send and get the January number, if you are unacquainted with the work, and judge for yourself. We will send this number to any address, when required as a specimen, for six cents, or two postage stamps.

Information for Married or Single Ladies. A LABASTER STARCH GLOSS -The most pure. A glossy, and finest, snow white starch, in the world. The cost of this starch is about the same a world. The cost of this starch is about the same as common starch, the entire cost not exceeding five cents per quark, and is made just as quick. It preserves the clothes, and gives them a glossy and enancelled appearance, that no other starch can do. This is an entirely new discovery, and the first time ever offered to the public. I ask a fee of only one dime for imparting the knowledge how to make this starch; and I expect to make more out of it at that low price than I could by selling it to a few of the rich for five dollars, which has been done. Now, ladies and gentlemen, send on your dimes, and get this information. dollars, which has been done. Now, lastice and gen-tlemen, send on your dimes, and get this information which some of you would not be without for fifty times its cost. Copy the address, and send for the in-formation when you have leisure. Better pay post age both ways, by sending a stamp along with the lime. Address, post paid, MRS. ANNETTA LA SHAW, Profitable and Honorable Employment! THE Subscriber is desirous of having an agent in each county and town of the Union. A capital of from $5 to $10 only will be required, and anything like an efficient, energetic man, can make from three to five dollars per day; indeed, some of the agents now employed are realizing twice that sum. Every information will be given by addressing, postage paid.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1854.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST.

UNRIVALLED ARRAY OF TALENT. UNRIVALLED ARRAY OF TALENT.

THE Proprietors of the POST, in again coming before the public, would return thanks for the gcorus patronage which has placed them far in advance of every other literary weekly in America; and as the only suitable return for such free and hearty support, their arrangements for 1854 have been made with a degree of literality probably unequalled in the history of American newspaper literature. They have engaged, as contributors for the ensuing year, the following brilliant array of talent and genius:

Mrs. Southework, Emercon Remark, Mrs. Desi-

Mrs. Southworth, Emerson Bennett, Mrs. Denison, Grace Greenwood, and Fanny Fern. In the first paper of January next, we design com-mencing an Original Novelet, written expressly for our columns, entitled

THE BRIDE OF THE WILDERNESS,
By EMERSON BENNETT, author of "Viola,"
"Clara Moreland," "The Forged Will," etc.
This Novelet, by the popular author of "Clara Moreland," we design following by another, called THE STEP-MOTHER,

By Mrs. MARY A. DENISON, author of "Home Pictures, "Gertrude Russell," etc.
We have also the promise of a number of
SKETCHES BY GRACE GREENWOOD,

Whose brilliant and versatile pen will be almost ex-clusively employed upon the Post and her own "Litdisarvery employed upon the Post and her own "hit-the Pilgrim."

Mrs. Southworth—whose fascinating works are now being rapidly republished in England—also, will maintain her old and pleasant connection with the Post. The next story from her gifted pen will be en-

Miriam. The Avenger; or, The Patal Vow By EMMA D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH, author of "The Curse of Clifton," "The Lost Heiress," "The Desert-ed Wife," etc.

And last—not least—we are authorized to announce

And last—not least—we are authorized to amounce a series of articles from one who has rapidly rised very high in popular favor. They will be entitled A NEW SERIES OF SKETCHES, By FANNY FERN, author of "Fern Leaves," etc. We expect to be able to commence the Sketches by Fanny Fern, as well as the series by Grace Greenwood, in the early numbers of the coming year. Engravings, Foreign Correspondence, Agricultural Articles, The News, Congressional Reports, The Markets, etc., also shall be regularly given.

(17) Chear Postage.—The postage on the Post, to any part of the United States, when paid quarterly in advance, is only 26 cents a year.

IT CHEAP POSTAGE.—The postage on the Post, to any part of the United States, when paid quarterly in advance, is only 26 cents a year.
